

Association of Shelter Veterinarians Sample Student Chapter Bylaws

Article 1: Name

The name of this organization shall be:

The (Name of School) Student Chapter of the Association of Shelter Veterinarians (SCASV)

Or, as a sub-heading:

(Veterinary Student Group Name)

A Student Chapter of the Association of Shelter Veterinarians

Article 2: Mission

Student chapters must uphold the mission of the Association of Shelter Veterinarians (ASV), which is to advance and support the practice of shelter medicine in order to improve community animal health and well-being.

Article 3: Objectives

The objectives of this organization shall be to:

1. Promote the importance of the specialty of shelter medicine in veterinary medicine and to raise student awareness of issues pertaining to homeless animals and pet overpopulation, which may include:
 - the mission of animal control and humane shelters and the role of the shelter veterinarian.
 - prevention, management, and control of infectious disease in the shelter setting.
 - shelter animal behavioral evaluation, prevention and management of confinement related behavioral disorders, stress management, training, and rehabilitation of shelter animals.
 - high volume and early age spay/neuter, trap-neuter-return, and other pet sterilization methods.
 - the veterinarian's role in animal cruelty recognition and reporting.

2. Encourage camaraderie among veterinary students with an interest in animal shelter medicine.
3. Provide educational opportunities for veterinary students related to the practice of shelter medicine through guest speakers, wet labs, and other formats.
4. Assist students in locating externships with practicing shelter veterinarians.
5. Provide a venue for veterinary students to support local shelters or other programs designed to help homeless animals.
6. Create and maintain an affiliation between the Student Chapter members and members of the ASV.
7. Act as a communication link between practicing shelter veterinarians and veterinary students via ASV printed materials and the ASV discussion forums.
8. Allow mention of SCASV membership on curriculum vitae to demonstrate interest in shelter medicine to prospective veterinary employers.

Article 4: SCASV Membership

1. To be a member in good standing, the following standards must be met:
 - a. A member must be a full or part time student enrolled in a school of veterinary medicine
 - b. Members must attend at least one SCASV meeting per year.
2. Membership shall not be restricted on the basis of sex, race, religion, sexual orientation, disability, or any other protected category.
3. A student chapter must consist of at least 3 veterinary students. An updated list of members must be submitted annually.
4. Students who are not members of an active ASV Student Chapter may join at the usual ASV student rate.
5. Each student chapter of the ASV must be financially self sufficient. No financial support is guaranteed from the ASV, although limited grant funding may occasionally be available. Chapters may raise money to offset membership costs, promote educational experiences for chapter members, hold educational events for chapter members and for students, and for specific projects that pertain to the practice of shelter veterinary medicine, in accordance with their university regulations.
6. Each student chapter is strongly encouraged to contribute at least one story per year to the ASV about Chapter activities, and to post a chapter profile/web link on the ASV website (sheltervet.org). Student chapters are also encouraged to maintain contact with the ASV

Student Liaison regarding club activities. Our goal is to share ideas with other student chapters on how to encourage and develop the study of shelter medicine.

Article 5: Amendments

1. Proposed Chapter Constitution or Bylaw amendments shall be presented in writing to the Chapter President.
2. Passage of an amendment requires a majority vote of the Chapter's officers.

Article 6: Relation with the Association of Shelter Veterinarians
